Assistant Basecamp Research

07/2024 to 07/2025

- At Basecamp Research, I was given a number of scientific research topics in which I were to perform my own laboratory and field experiments to think of and do.
- I had to combine my scientific knowledge and understanding to research and form a suitable experiment to carry out in order to get my final product.
- On top of this, I also decided to add an extra layer to my project and on my own accord create a scientific article detailing my works.

Assistant Rebel Spokesperson Barbican Theatre

07/2022 to 07/2025
Plymouth

- Company Overview: Barbican Theatre strive to make their clubs, activities and performances modern and embrace diversity. I did many jobs as an assistant rebel spokesperson at Barbican Theatre. It was mainly helping the managers to make Barbican Theatre not only visually better but also a safe space for young teens and adults. I used my creativity and marketing skills to decorate the space, create advertisement poster/bios and produce ideas for merch. My main manager, Dulcie, said my original and innovative ideas made Barbican Theatre a better place. I made a lot of new friends and kept a healthy and enjoyable attitude throughout even the long hours of printing and laminating. Barbican Theatre strive to make their clubs, activities and performances modern and embrace diversity.

Hobbies and Interests

- Dance/theatre, During my time as a member of the rebels community at Barbican Theatre I have gain a lot more confidence. In this club, I learn a new choreography in a small amount of time and then work in a group to create a new piece. We do a lot of performing in front of colleagues during practise, and also the public which has built my confidence and creativity in creating my own choreographies immensely. The hard work and pressure to learn a new piece has also built my resilience and ability to be a quick thinker and learner.
- Traveling, I am constantly looking for opportunities to travel and explore the world around me. Not only have I volunteered in Africa but next year in February I am going on a STEM trip to Iceland. Along side large-scale trips I also love to go on smaller adventures to beautiful places such as Scotland and Poland. Additionally, my other forms of adventure come in resilient works in camping like Duke of Edenborough.
